Chosen:

The original meaning of the word 'choose' is 'to select,' derived from the Latin word electus.

Chosen the biter:

- Chosen was a very aggressive puppy who fought and bit his siblings while they slept in a box. One day, chosen owner gave him a collar with a very shiny bell. The puppy became very proud, and thought it was a 'mark of honor' for courage and good behavior. Chosen pranced around every room, ringing his shiny bell as he walked. The old cat named "Faza" called him over and said, 'The shiny bell is not a prize or reward but a punishment; it strikes the drum of shame and warns others against misdeeds.'
